

She's a Dancer - Lyrics

Verse 1

Everyone knows that she's an animal
I never thought that you could fall for it
Say a prayer before you're manacled

She makes her move just after midnight
Spinning around you till you're blurry eyed
But you'll just blame it on the moonlight

Pre

She knows, she knows you're watching
She feels, she feels your gaze
She knows, she knows you're watching, you're watching

Chorus

She's a dancer
A romancer
When she calls, 'bout a million men answer
She's a player
You can't sway her
And nobody knows how to contain her

Gotta move
Gotta take time
For a chance just to know what it feels like
She's a dancer
A romancer
When she calls, 'bout a million men answer

Verse 2

She's so sweet that it's criminal
A mastermind and it's her game you play
And when she's won she turns invisible, again

Everyone knows that she's a dancer
But no one will know it when she strikes again
To add to the list of names that answer

Pre

She knows, she knows you're watching
She feels, she feels your gaze
She knows, she knows you're watching, you're watching

Chorus

She's a dancer
A romancer
When she calls, 'bout a million men answer
She's a player
You can't sway her
And nobody knows how to contain her

Gotta move
Gotta take time
For a chance just to know what it feels like
She's a dancer
A romancer
When she calls, 'bout a million men answer
